simile: comparison between two essentially unlike things using words such as “like,” “as,” or “as though”

Example: “My mistress’ eyes are nothing like the sun”

allusion: a reference to a person, event, or work outside the poem or literary piece

Example: “Shining, it was Adam and maiden”

imagery: word or sequence of words representing a sensory experience (visual, auditory, olfactory, tactile, and gustatory)

Example: “bells knelling classes to a close” (auditory)

irony: a contradiction of expectation between what is said and what is meant (verbal irony) or what is expected in a particular circumstance or behavior (situational), or when a character speaks in ignorance of a situation known to the audience or other characters (dramatic)

Example: “Time held me green and dying / Though I sang in my chains like the sea”

symbol: an object or action that stands for something beyond itself

Example: white = innocence, purity, hope

Sound Devices

alliteration: the repetition of consonant sounds, particularly at the beginning of words

Example: "... like a wanderer white"

assonance: the repetition of similar vowel sounds

Example: "I rose and told him of my woe"

cacophony: harsh or discordant sounds, often the result of repetition and combination of consonants within a group of words. Writers frequently use cacophony to express energy or mimic mood.

onomatopoeia: the use of words to imitate the sounds they describe

Example: "crack" or "whir"

slant rhyme: (off rhyme, half rhyme, imperfect rhyme): rhyme formed with words with similar but not wholly identical sounds

Example: barn / yard

rhyme: correspondence of terminal sounds of words or of lines of verse
